Informing musicians and music people since 1977

MUSIC CONNECTION is a national monthly music publication commonly referred to as "the musician's bible." Its broad appeal makes loyal readers out of songwriters, producers, studio owners, agents, attorneys, publicists, label executives and, of course, professional and aspiring musicians. They all turn to MC for articles and resources for everything from writing songs and getting signed, to the latest technology for music distribution and recording, as well as interviews with superstar artists and industry leaders. Each issue contains an updated directory of contact information for career necessities like A&R reps, recording studios, producers, film/TV music supervisors, and publishers, so our 85,000 readers keep every issue as a reference guide all year. We are distributed by paid subscription, and through a network of newsstands, bookstores, 7-Elevens, and independent musical instrument stores nationwide. We also include complimentary magazines in thousands of event gift bags and publication bins at over 40 music conferences and trade shows, including NAMM, AES, Americana, Folk Alliance, Taxi Road Rally, and many more.
